MARK A. GRANT, Born in Phoenix, Arizona, Mark returned to the Southwest after completing medical school at Loyola Chicago. He completed family medicine residency at the University of Arizona Tucson where he developed a passion for working with the underserved. Seeing the impact addiction had on patients in the Tucson community, Mark pursued a fellowship in addiction medicine to gain the skills that would help him better serve this population. Mark is currently the Associate Medical Director of Addiction Services at CODAC's OTP in Tucson.
